

Andrey Triana

Gaining attention with her debut 2010 album on Ninja Tune, Lost Where I Belong, alongside collaborations with Flying Lotus and Mr Scruff, Andrey Triana had aspirations to develop her sound and reach a wider audience. Momentum funding enabled Andrey to work with producer Matt Hales (Lianne La Havas, Paloma Faith) - delivering 14 tracks and a career-defining album.

Released by Ninja Tune imprint Counter Records in March 2015, Giants has already gained significant critical acclaim, resulting in appearances on Later with Jools and The One Show, complemented by a high-profile marketing campaign. Following support slots for The Cat Empire, Andrey will complete a short UK tour later this year - including a headline appearance at London's KOKO.

"The Momentum funding was invaluable, allowing doors to open and for me to work with a producer like Matt Hales. The album simply wouldn't have happened otherwise."
